Dear Parents/Guardians and Raimondians,

It is with immense honour and privilege that I write as the new Principal of Raimondi College. I am humbled to be appointed this position by the Hong Kong Catholic Diocese to succeed Ms. Louisa Lo W.K. I would like to take this opportunity to extend my gratitude to Mr. Peter Lee, Supervisor, and all School Managers for their trust and encouragement.

Raimondi College takes pride in its rich heritage and unfailing support from parents and alumni. The school community is greatly indebted to Ms. Lo for her dedication and a number of pioneering initiatives. Under her leadership, Raimondians have reached new heights in academic and personal accomplishments. The school's soaring public perception and substantial growth in enrollment are testament to her forward-thinking fervor and tireless effort.

Having served in Raimondi College for over thirty years with the blessings and guidance of God, I have committed myself to servanthood and taken on the responsibility to build on Ms. Lo's legacy. With a passion to strive for excellence, I will advocate for opportunities that empower Raimondians' ownership of learning, challenging their aspirations and inspiring their vision.

While the COVID-19 pandemic continues to evolve, I envisage online learning to take center stage as the new school year begins. Rooted in our robust e-learning resources and dynamic learning environment, the entire staff is set to deliver an invigorating curriculum, encompassing the major concerns for 2020-2021:

- 1. Developing students to be inquiring, self-reflected and language-competent learners capable of generating applicable knowledge as well as developing their generic, literacy and STEM-related skills
- 2. To cultivate students' Chinese virtues and spirituality through a cross-curricular approach in enhancing positive thinking and generic skills conducive to their lifelong learning

This year, the school will see new personnel in the following positions: our beloved Ms. Lo will continue to serve Raimondi College as School Manager and Raimondi College Primary Section as Supervisor, with effect from 1 September and 1 December 2020 respectively. In addition, the Incorporated Management Committee has appointed Mr. Danny Chung to take up the post of Vice-Principal (Student Support, Ethos and Partnership), whereas Mr. Roger Lo will take up the post of Assistant Principal (Academic and IT Development), with effect from 1 September 2020.

In the years ahead, I will continue to maintain collaborative connections with parents, alumni and the wider Raimondi Community, embracing our core values, Love, Unity and Perseverance. As the school motto goes, "In Constantia Fortitudo", let us all persevere in unity, bringing our school to new heights.

Wish you all a fruitful school year!

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Larry Yeung S.T.
Principal
